Only by enrolling on a distance learning programme with RDI will you receive membership of the International Management Academy and all the many benefits that come with this exclusive and professional worldwide community - one more reason why RDI offers you the best career investment you can make. The IMA is built around students - giving you the tools to achieve your career goals. Click here to find out why we give this away for free.

What is the IMA?
Exclusive to RDI, the IMA allows us to deliver extra resources to all students learning through RDI. The IMA uses ilearn (RDI's online university) to deliver an Online Resource Centre full of management, business and personal development content, available to all current students throughout the world. On enrolment, you will receive your IMA Membership card - giving you access to the IMA Online Resource Centre. These materials are continually enhanced and progress alongside your studies with further resources to support and help you succeed in your career.

What do members receive?
All members receive a monthly newsletter to update them on all the latest offers and events. Using their IMA membership card, members access their Online Resource Area which can contain:

* Learning videos by world-leading business men and women
* Management Learning Lessons
* Access to Lifelines - Work-life balance workshop
* Tutor Threads and Study FAQs

* Online Chat and Presentations
* Tutor Guides
* Insights Personal Discovery Profile

And much, much more to instantly enhance both your learning and your CV.

Why are we giving all this away for free?
At RDI we are passionate about helping others to achieve their goals through study and want to give something back to those who choose to make the most of themselves. We know our students would like additional skills and strengths to add to their CVs and that this is the most valuable thing we can give back to them.

This is why we offer you access to an exclusive international professional community that can benefit your career development.

- FREE world-leading business videos
